

AMERICAN AND JAP CAPITAL TO EXPLOIT CHINA

Peking Gazette Warns New York Financier to Have Nothing to Do With Mikado's Interest in Republic.

Peking, Feb. 3.—A New York dispatch to the Asahi Shimbun of Tokyo, printed at Tokyo, January 23, and reprinted at Peking, says Willard D. Straight in behalf of the American International corporation, and Vice President Elihu O. of the Industrial Bank of Japan, are negotiating for the reconstruction of the Grand canal jointly by American and Japanese capitalists, which has caused much comment.

The Peking Gazette denounces the rumored co-operation as a Japanese attempt to fortify Japan's claims to the German interests in Shantung province, saying:

"We warn Willard Straight that the inevitable result of an attempt by Americans to co-operate with the Japanese in China will be that they will be grouped in the same category with the Japanese."

ADMITS PROPOSITION IS UNDER DISCUSSION

New York, Feb. 3.—Willard Straight said here today that there has been some discussion here looking to bringing about co-operation between American and Japanese capital in the grand canal reconstruction project, but that nothing has come of it yet. He would not discuss how far the matter had gone, saying that due announcement would be made if any definite arrangement was reached.

PRECAUTIONS TO SAFEGUARD ALL U. S. PROPERTY

Administration Anxious Not to Take Measures Indicative of War Except Where Absolutely Required.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Washington, Feb. 3.—Precautions to safeguard naval stations, army posts and arsenals, and other service property constituted the military measures taken by the government to night following the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany.

President Wilson conferred briefly after his address to congress with Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels. The conference, it was stated, had to do entirely with precautionary steps, although the secretaries also probably gave some general information as to the nation's preparedness for war.

It was made clear that the administration had no desire to take warlike measures unless forced to do so by some act of Germany.

The following specific orders were sent out during the day:

The White House and White House grounds were closed to visitors for the first time in many years.

All navy yards and stations were closed to the public, only employees and officers and enlisted men of the navy to be admitted until further notice.

Officers commanding army posts, arsenals, magazines, coast batteries, were directed to exercise every precaution.

The state, war and navy buildings were closed to visitors and cards of identification were issued to employees and press representatives entitled to admission.

Publication of the daily ship movement list, giving the departures and arrivals of naval vessels, was suspended.

LOYALTY PLEDGES ARE POURING IN FROM ALL SIDES

Louis J. Hammerling Promises Support of 467 Foreign Language Newspapers, Regardless of Former Views.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) New York, Feb. 3.—Pledges of loyalty to the United States and President Wilson by patriotic organizations, representatives of industry and many individuals, followed closely the news from Washington concerning the break with Germany today.

William Fellowes Morgan, president of the Merchants association of New York, sent a telegram to the president on behalf of the 5,000 New York business and professional men constituting the membership of the association, assuring him of "our support in this national crisis."

Pledges Loyal Support

Louis J. Hammerling, president of the American Association of Foreign Language Newspapers, representing 467 publications in many different languages, sent a telegram pledging support of his association.

"Our membership," the message stated, "regardless of origin or sympathy for various European belligerents, indorses your stand and pledges its resources and loyalty to support you in your efforts to maintain American rights, which are those of the whole neutral world."

The United States Eastern Aeroplane corporation wired the war department that the company's factory and aviation school in Brooklyn are at the disposal of the government and that the government "can have anything we have or can provide."

Flags Displayed in New York

Flags were displayed from the windows of many of the downtown "skyscrapers" tonight, and in the hotels and restaurants, as well as theaters and other places of amusement up town where crowds congregated, evidence of patriotism were everywhere shown.

A plan to mobilize the women of the home, office, farm and factory so that in the event of war they will be ready to give the utmost service to the country, was announced tonight by the League for Women's Service, formed as a result of the congress of constructive patriotism recently held in Washington. Headquarters of the league were established here today. Branches, it was said, would at once be organized throughout the country.

GERMAN-AMERICAN EDITORS GIVE VIEWS

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Louisville, Ky., Feb. 3.—Without doubt, every German-American sympathizer, especially those whose cradle stood in the old country, has heard of President Wilson's step with deep regret, but as to the stand they will take there is only one answer: Every German-American who has become a citizen of this country knows his duty in this hour, knows which flag he must follow.

Fresno, Cal., Feb. 3.—Wilson was justified in severing diplomatic relations between the two countries. The president has a right to fight for the rights of Americans on the high seas.

Fresno, Cal., Feb. 3.—The United States had no right to break with Germany under the circumstances. The United States has continually entered into England, but has treated Germany most unfairly throughout the war.

New York Staats Zeitung: The Staats Zeitung tomorrow will print an editorial signed by Bernard H. Ridder, in which he says:

"The president has spoken. He has spoken for the country, for all the people."

"Regret as we may the trend of events, it now behooves every American to stand squarely behind the president."

BRYAN APPEALS TO PEOPLE NOT TO ALLOW WAR

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Washington, Feb. 3.—William Jennings Bryan issued a statement tonight addressed to the American people, appealing to them to let the president and congress "know that the people at home protest against entering this war on either side with its frightful expenditure of blood and treasure; that they are not willing to send American soldiers across the Atlantic to march under the banner of European monarchs or die on European soil in settlement of European quarrels."

The former secretary of state said both sets of belligerents believe they were in a death struggle and felt justified in resorting to acts contrary to international law as heretofore interpreted. He said the president had appealed to the nations at war to forget their bitterness and come together in an honorable peace, adding, "are we not in duty bound to measure up to the standard set for them?"

Several alternatives were suggested by Mr. Bryan, including postponing until after the war the settlement of any dispute that cannot be adjusted by peaceful terms, warning Americans of belligerent ships, refusing clearance to American and other neutral vessels carrying contraband, keeping American vessels out of the danger zone and the submission of any declaration of war to a referendum of the people.

WHOLE STRUCTURE OF RELIEF WORK FALLS TO PIECES

American Efforts, So Efficiently Built Up in War Zones, Expected to End; Belgium May Starve.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Washington, Feb. 3.—An entire diplomatic structure to protect probably 2,000,000 prisoners in the midst of their enemies, to care for a whole conquered nation in Belgium, to represent the interests of four sovereign states in Germany and German interests in nine enemy countries crumbled today before German necessity.

One of the most complex, extra legal humanitarian machines ever evolved, the slow, patient work built up during two and a half years of effort, thus is sacrificed at the Berlin government's desperate challenge to the whole neutral world in a last attempt to reach England.

American organization, genius and means of relief for the war zones will cease from today to operate. All American representatives will be withdrawn from Germany and the duties they have efficiently performed, except looking after Belgium, will fall on untrained forces. The physical parts of the organization, as far as possible, will stand as they are, embassies, legations and office buildings continuing under their new directing forces, but the hand and heart that built their invaluable files and records will retire.

From Belgium, the United States will not withdraw till the military conquerors make it impossible for her to continue. The 160 Americans who have from the war's beginning proved the directing genius for the greatest and longest sustained relief work in history, will remain at their posts until the Germans force them across the frontier. Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium, will remain in Brussels until forced to the present seat of Belgian government in Havre, France.

Minister Havenith called at the department today in the greatest anxiety at this latest blow to Belgium. His feelings were torn between the stunning possibility of the withdrawal of American relief, and joy at the thought of another neutral standing behind his nation's resistance.

HOW TO PROTECT MERCHANTMEN IS STILL UNSETTLED

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Washington, Feb. 3.—Saltings of American merchant vessels for the prohibited war zone were stated officially at the state department to have become a military matter. No interpretation was given to indicate whether this means that the ships will be armed, convoyed, or held in port. No final decision seems yet to have been made, but the state department is expressing to shippers the informal belief that it would be wiser to postpone sailings for the present.

Whether the government will arm ships or convoy them, is a question not finally decided. The navy department says that while all the guns and material necessary for such armament are ready in the various navy yards, the decision as to the policy of armament rests with the state department.

A definite announcement is expected shortly. The state department is being besieged by shipping men seeking information as to the government's wishes. Now that the major decision is out of war, collateral issues are expected to fall rapidly into line.

Whether armament or convoy would be taken by Germany as an act of war in itself, is uncertain, but it is not doubted that an attempt to resist a German undersea boat would lead to hostilities.

ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL PLACED UNDER GUARD

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Davenport, Ia., Feb. 3.—Col. George A. Burrow, U. S. A., commandant at the Rock Island arsenal, on the Mississippi river opposite here, tonight called in all passes except those issued to employees and members of the garrison. A heavy guard was posted around the buildings and strangers barred from approaches to the post.

The Rock Island arsenal is one of the largest government small arms and ordnance stations in the United States.

There was a report current that a battalion of the Third Infantry, Iowa national guard, now enroute from Brownsville, Tex., to Des Moines, to be mustered out, would be sent to Davenport to reinforce the arsenal guard, but this could not be confirmed. Adj. Gen. Guy E. Logan, of Des Moines, said he had no instructions from the war department to send state troops to Davenport.

Five million dollars' worth of ammunition are stored in the arsenal at the present time.

COLONEL READY WITH FOUR SONS TO GO TO WAR

Former President Roosevelt Tenders Services to War Department; Stands by Nation's Chief Executive.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Oyster Bay, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt tonight pledged his support to President Wilson in upholding the honor of the United States. He offered to the country his own services and those of his four sons in the event of hostilities.

Plans for a volunteer army division to be commanded by the colonel, which his friends have worked on since the sinking of the Lusitania, have come to the front and he admitted he had asked the war department for permission to raise such a body of troops.

"Of course, I shall in every way support the president in all that he does to uphold the honor of the United States, and to safeguard the lives of American citizens," he said. "Yesterday, I wrote to the war department asking permission to raise a division if war is declared and there is a call for volunteers. In such an event I and my four sons will go."

Mr. Roosevelt would not discuss the country's foreign situation further, preferring to wait for developments. Several thousand men have at various times communicated with The Post, who has acted for Colonel Roosevelt in this connection, offering their services under his command and he was flooded with telegrams today. Among the men they have informed him they would accept commissions under him are John Greenway of Bisbee, Ariz., and Frank Channing of Denver.

NATIONAL BANKS ARE AGAIN CONTINUED

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Washington, Feb. 3.—The federal reserve board, reviewing its recent admonitions to national banks against investing too heavily in foreign bonds, expressed the opinion today in its annual report to congress that a reduction of American exports or settlement thereof in gold would be preferable whenever the absorbing power of the investment market shows signs of exhaustion, to having banks "unduly extend their investments in foreign securities at a time when business prudence and conservatism suggest the necessity of their maintaining themselves in a particularly strong position."

"The purchase by American investors of desirable foreign loans in large amounts," reads the report, "and the absorption by them of a vast volume of American securities previously held abroad, may be regarded as a healthy and normal operation in view of the circumstances which have existed since the war began, but the board has deemed it necessary, nevertheless, to emphasize the importance of having the banks of the country keep themselves in a liquid condition."

AMERICAN ATTITUDE APPROVED IN ARGENTINE
(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Buenos Aires, Feb. 3.—President Wilson's decision to sever diplomatic relations with Germany is approved by all circles in Buenos Aires. Las Epoca, the organ of the president, says: "The point in question is that it is no longer a war for political ends or dynastic interests. This is a war for the vindication of the principles inherent in human conscience. After twenty centuries there is an attempt to torpedo the rights of humanity. The United States stands against a power which aspired to destroy morals. The opinion of the world heartily approves the step taken by President Wilson."
Most of the newspapers eulogize President Wilson's decision.
